The 23rd Türler Sprinter Trophy took place on Sunday, June 19, within the scope of the prestigious Derby Racing Day at the Frauenfeld race track. The traditional sprint is one of the seasonal highlights of the flat race discipline.

Competing against 7 other horses, the winner was Shuffle Champ, ridden by French jockey Mathias Sautjeau under the auspices of champion trainer Miro Weiss. The horse's owners are Wally and Hans Clavadetscher from Sils-Baselgia. The trophy was handed over to winning team by Franz Türler and Franz Türler, Jr.

The house of Türler has been associated with the traditional horse races in Frauenfeld as a sponsor since the 1920s.
